ANTONY'S TOWER
THE BUSINESS HOTEL

WELCOME TO ANTONY'S TOWER

The history of Pathanapuram goes back to Thenmala Desam, a small Principality under a local ruler. Capital was at Pathanapuram. Later, Thenmala Desom became a part of Elayidathu Swaroopam having its capital at Kottarakkara. Pathanapuram was the capital of one of the two districts of Elayidathu Swaroopam. In 1764, King Marthandavarma conquered Elayidathu Swaroopam and annexed it to Travancore. The name Pathanapuram may have evolved from the fact that the area had a sizeable elephant population and elephants were caught and trained/ tamed for work at the elephant cage/camp at the Town. The Old police station area used to be the elephant Camp. The name can be translated as Path = (10) + Ana = (elephant) + Puram = (Town).
